Prior to inclusion of any floor nomination to the slate of official nominations to be voted on by the National Convention, said floor nomination(s) must first be sent back to the Nominating Committee to validate whether the nominee has appropriate credentials to serve as a National Director and may only be added to the formal slate of nominees upon express written approval of the Nominating Committee. There shall be no nominations made by the Nominating Committee or made from the floor that create contests between two nominees. All nominations must be submitted as a universal slate of nominees each of whom shall meet the requirements set forth in Article 1, Section 8(a) and Article 2, Section 1 of this Constitution and Laws

(b) Election.

(1) Except as provided otherwise, the election of all National Convention Officers shall be by voice vote, at such time during the session designated therefor in the order of business or as may be determined by the National Convention, and shall be decided by a majority vote upon a universal slate of nominees.

(2) In the event the number of nominees on the slate exceeds the number of open seats for office, the election of all National Convention Officers shall be by ballot. The nominees receiving the most votes shall be elected as National Convention Officers. In cases where a ballot is used, a committee consisting of WoodmenLife's Vice Presidents (excluding the General Counsel) shall serve to distribute and certify the results to the National Convention.

(3) No vote may be cast by proxy.

(4) No election shall decide a contest between two nominees.

(5) No motion, except to take a necessary recess, shall be entertained during the election.

(3) Operational Authority Over Other Matters. The Executive Committee shall have supervision and operational authority over all matters involving WoodmenLife not delegated to the President & CEO or to another officer or to the Investment Committee or to a committee of the National Convention and not inconsistent with the powers of the National Board of Directors.

(ii) Executive and Investment Committees to Report. The Executive and Investment Committees shall report their formal actions to each regular session of the National Convention and the annual meeting of the National Board of Directors, in writing.

(h) Delegation of Powers. The National Board of Directors may delegate any of the powers, authority or duties it is required to perform to any standing or special committee or to any officer of WoodmenLife upon such terms or direction as the National Board may determine.

(i) Committee Charters. Any committee, standing or special, may draft and adopt a charter. While any charter should be interpreted in the context of all applicable laws and regulations, as well as the context of WoodmenLife's Articles of Incorporation and this Constitution and Laws, a charter does not establish by its own force any legally binding obligations. In the event any provision of a charter conflicts with provisions of WoodmenLife's Articles of Incorporation and/or this Constitution and Laws, WoodmenLife's Articles of Incorporation and/or this Constitution and Laws shall govern.

Sec. 5. Vacancy in Directorate.

(a) Vacancy by a National Director other than the President & CEO or Executive Vice President. A vacancy on the National Board of Directors of any National Director that is not the President & CEO or an Executive Vice President shall be filled by nomination and election by a majority of the National Board during any regular or special meeting thereof, and a successor member of the National Board of Directors shall serve during the unexpired term and/or until a successor is elected and qualified.

(b) Vacancy by Executive Vice President. A vacancy of an Executive Vice President shall be filled by the President & CEO.

Sec. 6. Procedure in Event of Vacancy in Office of President & CEO. In the event of the death, total and permanent disability, resignation, suspension, retirement, or removal of the President & CEO, the Chair of the National Board of Directors, if not the President and CEO, or any Executive Vice President serving on the National Board of Directors, in that order, shall immediately call a special meeting of the National Board of Directors, which shall nominate and elect by a majority vote a President & CEO to serve during the unexpired term or the period of such suspension, as applicable. Until the special meeting of the National Board of Directors, the longest-serving Executive Vice President in that capacity shall be ex officio President & CEO.

Sec. 7. Procedure of Determining Disability, Suspension or Removal of Members of the National Board. The National Board of Directors shall determine when any member of the National Board should be suspended or removed from office. Any decision by the National Board of Directors that any member should be suspended or removed from office, shall be by an affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds of the total membership of the National Board. The removal of the President & CEO or any Executive Vice President from the National Board of Directors under this section shall also result in the termination of his/her employment with WoodmenLife as President & CEO or as an Executive Vice President.

In the case of the Executive Vice Presidents, in addition to removal as outlined above, they may also be removed by the President & CEO, with or without cause at the sole discretion of the President & CEO.

In the event an employee, Regional Director or Recruiting Sales Manager is a member of the National Board of Directors and is removed from his position as an employee, Regional Director or Recruiting Sales Manager, said employee, Regional Director or Recruiting Sales Manager is automatically removed from the National Board of Directors. Any member of the National Board suspended or removed under this subsection may appeal to the Judiciary Committee and National Convention, as provided in Article 1, Section 2(a) and Article 8 of this Constitution and Laws. This right of appeal does not apply to Executive Vice Presidents removed by the President & CEO with or without cause.

Sec. 8. Conflicts of Interest. The National Board of Directors shall establish a Conflict of Interest Policy. Any National Board member violating such policy shall be suspended or removed as the National Board shall determine.

Sec. 9. Chair of the National Board of Directors.

(b) Preside Over National Board of Directors. The Chair shall preside over the meetings of the National Board of Directors. In the absence of the Chair, the entire National Board of Directors shall elect by majority vote an interim Chair to preside.

(c) Additional Duties. The Chair shall perform such other and additional duties as may be assigned by the National Board of Directors, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon.

(d) Removal of Chair. The Chair of the National Board may be removed as Chair by an affirmative vote of a majority of the National Board of Directors. Upon such removal, the National Board of Directors shall elect another member of the National Board of Directors to serve as the Chair by an affirmative vote of a majority of the National Board of Directors.

The additional Executive Officers shall be the Executive Vice Presidents serving on the National Board of Directors pursuant to Article 2, Section 1 of this Constitution and Laws. The National Board of Directors may approve additional Executive Vice Presidents, for appointment by the President & CEO, as may be deemed necessary to manage WoodmenLife. The Executive Vice Presidents shall report to the President & CEO.

The specific duties of the WoodmenLife President and CEO and the Secretary shall be as described in this Constitution and Laws, in the attached Duties of Officers and as assigned. In the case of the President & CEO, the National Board of Directors shall assign additional duties and responsibilities; and in the case of the other Executive Officers, the President & CEO shall assign all other additional duties and responsibilities.

Sec. 2. Bonds of Officers and Employees; Fidelity Bond.

The National Board of Directors and/or the President & CEO shall procure and maintain in force surety bonds on such officers and employees of WoodmenLife in such form and at least in such amount as required and specified by the Nebraska Department of Insurance.

Sec. 3. Execution of Contracts.

The President & CEO and any one of the remaining Executive Officers or, in the absence of the President & CEO, any two of the remaining Executive Officers of WoodmenLife shall have full power and authority to execute all contracts, documents and obligations which shall be necessary or desirable for the conduct of WoodmenLife's affairs when duly authorized to do so. The President & CEO shall have the power to delegate the signing of contracts as outlined in Section 1(r) under Duties of Officers. In addition, the National Board of Directors or the Executive Committee may authorize other officers of WoodmenLife to execute documents which affect their areas of operation, subject to such directions and limitations as the National Board or Executive Committee may establish.

Sec. 4. Indemnification of Officers and Employees.

Every current and former officer, employee, and National Director of WoodmenLife shall be indemnified against losses or judgments assessed against him/her by a court of competent jurisdiction and for expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him/her in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding, civil in nature, in which he/she is made a party by reason of serving WoodmenLife, except in relation to matters as to which he/she shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be guilty of fraud, gross negligence or malfeasance in the performance of duty.

ARTICLE 4

Jurisdictions

Sec. 1. Their Establishment and Territorial Limits.

(a) Established Jurisdictions. The territory in which WoodmenLife is authorized to do business shall be divided into units known as Jurisdictions, based on the guidelines established in this Article. A list of Jurisdictions is included with the Jurisdictional Bylaws, which are attached to this Constitution and Laws.

Except as otherwise provided, the National Board of Directors shall have authority to assign members of WoodmenLife not residing in any Jurisdiction to a Jurisdiction.

(b) Establishment of Jurisdictions.

Whenever there shall be 4,000 beneficiary members in any state or combination of states, upon notification thereof by the President & CEO and Secretary of WoodmenLife, the National Convention or National Board of Directors may establish a Jurisdiction. Additional Jurisdictions may be established or subdivided, provided that any state, portion of a state or states, formerly a part of a Jurisdiction, shall be merged into one or more Jurisdictions adjacent thereto. The District of Columbia shall be regarded as a state.

(c) Abolition of Jurisdictions. The National Board of Directors shall vacate any Jurisdiction which has less than 4,000 beneficiary members on November 30 for two consecutive years. The state, portion of a state or states comprising a Jurisdiction thus abolished shall be merged into or attached to one or more Jurisdictions adjacent thereto. When so abolished and merged, all Jurisdictional offices shall stand vacated except Past Presidents.

(d) Jurisdictional Funds. Whenever any Jurisdiction is created and/or abolished, as provided in this Section, the funds and all other property of the Jurisdiction affected thereby shall be distributed and/or divided as follows:

(1) Newly Created Jurisdictions.

The funds of any Jurisdiction from which a new Jurisdiction is created shall be divided in proportion to the number of benefit members residing within the territory of the new Jurisdictions and the number residing in the Jurisdiction affected by any such subdivision thereof.

(2) Abolished Jurisdictions.

The funds of any Jurisdiction which has been abolished shall be divided between the Jurisdictions into which its former territory is merged in proportion to the number of benefit members residing within that part thereof so merged.

(e) Past Presidents. No member shall be a Past President of more than one Jurisdiction at any one time. Past Presidents shall be such only with respect to the Jurisdiction in which they were elected, provided they hold membership in a chapter located therein. All Past Presidents moving from the Jurisdiction, but retaining their membership in a local chapter of the Jurisdiction, shall be entitled to attend all Jurisdictional Conventions and have all rights and privileges in the Jurisdictional Conventions as any Past President residing within the Jurisdiction.

(f) Notice to All Chapters Affected. The Secretary of WoodmenLife, or designee thereof, shall notify the Secretary of every chapter affected by the establishment and/or abolition of any Jurisdiction at least sixty days prior to the time fixed for the convening of any such Jurisdictional Convention, giving the time, date and place thereof, which shall be fixed by the President & CEO of WoodmenLife.

Sec. 2. Composition of Jurisdictional Conventions; Members to Make Reports.

(a) Composition. Each Jurisdictional Convention shall be composed of the Jurisdictional Convention Representatives. Jurisdictional Convention Representatives include the Jurisdictional Convention Officers, the National Convention Delegates to the last regular session of the National Convention and the following, each of whom shall be a Good-Standing Benefit Member of a chapter located in the Jurisdiction: Past Jurisdictional Presidents, Jurisdictional Convention Delegates from chapters located therein, and the Regional Director from each state or division thereof. Each Jurisdictional Convention Representative shall be entitled to one vote on matters considered by the Jurisdictional Convention. No person may be a Jurisdictional Convention Delegate from more than one chapter or a Jurisdictional Convention Delegate to more than one Jurisdictional Convention each quadrennium.

(b) Jurisdictional Convention Representatives to Make Reports. All Jurisdictional Convention Representatives shall report to their respective Chapters at the next regular meeting thereafter concerning the actions of the Jurisdictional Convention attended by them.

Sec. 3. Jurisdictional Convention Officers and Their Duties. Jurisdictional Convention Officers and their duties are described in the Jurisdictional Bylaws, which are attached to this Constitution and Laws and which may be modified by the National Convention or the National Board of Directors.

Sec. 4. National Convention Representative from the Jurisdictional Convention and Alternates Thereto. The President and the Immediate Past President of Jurisdictions shall, by virtue of their offices, be National Convention Representatives and shall be the sole National Convention Representatives of Jurisdictions comprising a single state with more than 4,000 but fewer than 7,000 beneficiary members. Each such Jurisdiction shall also be entitled to a National Convention Delegate for each succeeding 4,000 such members or three-fourths fraction thereof within said Jurisdiction in excess of the first 4,000 such members.

Jurisdictions comprised of more than one state shall be entitled to National Convention Representatives in addition to the President and Immediate Past President as follows: one National Convention Delegate from each state within its territorial limits having at least 1,000 beneficiary members therein, except the state wherein the President resides, plus one National Convention Delegate-at-large for each succeeding 4,000 such members or three-fourths fraction thereof within said Jurisdiction in excess of the first 4,000 such members. Benefit membership shall be determined by the records of the Secretary of WoodmenLife, or designee thereof, as of November 30 immediately preceding any regular session of the Jurisdictional Convention.

Each Jurisdictional Convention in regular session shall elect its National Convention Delegates and a like number of alternates. The Secretary of WoodmenLife, or designee thereof, shall mail to the Jurisdictional Presidents and Secretaries, in ample time, a statement showing the number of benefit members within their Jurisdiction as of the November 30 preceding and the number of National Convention Delegates, if any, to which their Jurisdiction is entitled. Benefit members of WoodmenLife who are benefit members of subordinate bodies located within any Jurisdiction shall be regarded as living within the same for all purposes hereof.

Sec. 5. Jurisdictional Sessions and Quorums. Provisions describing Jurisdictional Sessions and quorum requirements are set forth in the Jurisdictional Bylaws, which are attached to this Constitution and Laws and which may be modified by the National Convention or the National Board of Directors.

Chapters

Sec. 1. Chapters and Members Thereof. WoodmenLife acts on a lodge system based on chapters. The term “chapter” shall include family, adult, youth, and virtual and/or digital chapters. In addition, chapters may be further defined as subordinate bodies of WoodmenLife as stated in Article 8 of WoodmenLife’s Articles of Incorporation. Based on availability, members have the option of joining either a family chapter consisting of adult and youth members or a separate adult or youth chapter. Adult chapters can either operate as a family chapter or elect to maintain separate adult and youth chapters. Chapters shall exist only by the issuance of a charter signed by the President & CEO and Secretary of WoodmenLife. All benefit and social members of WoodmenLife shall be members of the chapter into which they are assigned, or into which they are transferred, subject to Articles 4 and 7 of the Articles of Incorporation.

(a) Youth Chapters. Should a separate youth chapter be chartered, such youth chapter shall be composed of the benefit members of WoodmenLife who have not attained the age of sixteen years. They may be divided and given such names or designations as shall seem appropriate to the National Board of Directors.

Every chartered youth chapter, with the permission of the President & CEO of WoodmenLife, may be attached to and shall become the responsibility of an adult chapter. Youth members not of sufficient number to be chartered may be assigned to a family or adult chapter or transferred into another youth chapter, as the President & CEO shall determine. When so assigned, the Chapter Secretary and Treasurer, as the case may be, shall serve the youth chapter and/or members in the same capacity. Funds of youth chapters shall be handled in the same manner as funds of adult chapters, except that the Treasurer shall keep a separate account appropriately named to reveal its ownership. No funds of a youth chapter shall be used for any purpose other than a youth program sanctioned by WoodmenLife.

A program of youth activities and rules and regulations for their government, including officers thereof, shall be promulgated and prescribed by the President & CEO of WoodmenLife subject to the approval of the National Board of Directors and consistent with this Constitution and Laws.

The presiding officer of each family or adult chapter to which any youth chapter and/or youth members are attached shall appoint a Program Director to direct the same in their activities, subject to the approval of the President & CEO of WoodmenLife.

(b) Transfer of Youth Members to Chapters. All youth members of WoodmenLife, upon attaining the age of sixteen years, shall be transferred to the chapter to which they or their youth chapter is attached, or, if not so attached, to the nearest family or adult chapter unless they shall request to be transferred elsewhere, subject to the provisions of this Constitution and Laws. The Secretary of WoodmenLife, or designee thereof, shall keep such records as are necessary to accomplish the foregoing.

(c) Supervisory Power of National Convention or National Board of Directors Over All Chapters. The National Convention or the National Board of Directors may prescribe rules and regulations to permit and facilitate any or all of the following:

- (1) The consolidation or merger of Chapters;
- (2) Joint meetings of adult members under a common ritual;
- (3) The organizing, creating and establishing, on a local basis within Jurisdictions, of District Meetings; and/or
- (4) The orderly operations of Chapters.

Sec. 2. New Chapters and Youth Chapters.

How Chartered. New family, adult and youth chapters may be chartered when at least twenty Good-Standing Benefit Members are secured. No charter shall be issued to youth chapters until at least twelve of the required number have attained the age of eight years. Upon attaining charter strength, a charter and all necessary supplies shall be forwarded by the Secretary of WoodmenLife, or designee thereof, to all new family, adult and youth chapters.

Sec. 3. Powers and Duties of Chapters.

(a) Power and Limitations. Chapters shall have only such powers as are given them by this Constitution and Laws. The bylaws prescribed for their government and this Constitution and Laws shall govern them in all their transactions.

(b) Duties. Every chapter shall receive all members using the prescribed ritual of introduction. They shall not deviate from the prescribed ceremony of introduction.

(c) Additional Limitations. No chapter shall organize any corporation, association or other entity for the purpose of holding title to or managing any of its property without prior written approval of the President & CEO and Secretary of WoodmenLife and on such terms and conditions as each may prescribe. Any such entity now in existence shall hold and/or manage all such property subject to this Constitution and Laws and for the sole use and benefit of the chapter to which it belongs, beneficially or otherwise. All such entities holding legal title to any such property shall also account to the President & CEO of WoodmenLife as and when he/she shall direct and shall conform to his/her directives, even to the extent of dissolution and liquidation.

Sec. 4. Officers of Chapters, Their Duties, Meetings, and Quorum Requirements of Chapters. All provisions relating to chapter officers, their duties, meetings and quorum requirements are contained in the Chapter Bylaws which are attached to this Constitution and Laws and which may be modified by the National Convention or the National Board of Directors.

Sec. 5. Election and Qualification of Jurisdictional Delegates.

(a) At any regular meeting prior to January 31, immediately preceding each regular session of the Jurisdictional Convention, Jurisdictional Convention Delegates and a like number of alternates shall be elected thereto in the same manner as the officers of Chapters, and the Chapter Secretary shall immediately certify the same to the Secretary of the Jurisdiction and to the Secretary of WoodmenLife. The Secretary of WoodmenLife, or designee thereof, shall determine if all persons so elected are eligible to serve, based on guidelines established in WoodmenLife's Chapter Bylaws, and certify them to the Jurisdiction by the Secretary of WoodmenLife. If any such person is found to be ineligible to serve, the Secretary of WoodmenLife, or designee thereof, shall immediately notify the chapter, which may elect another Jurisdictional Convention Delegate or alternate. The Secretary of WoodmenLife shall not certify the eligibility of any person whose notice of election is received later than March 1.

(b) Each chapter located within the territorial limits of each Jurisdiction and which has not fewer than twenty beneficiary members shall be entitled to representation in the Jurisdictional Convention according to its membership as follows: one Jurisdictional Convention Delegate for twenty benefit members; one Jurisdictional Convention Delegate for each additional 100 benefit members up to 500 additional members; one Jurisdictional Convention Delegate for each additional 200 benefit members between 520 members and 920 additional benefit members; and thereafter, one Jurisdictional Convention Delegate for each additional 300 benefit members.

The number of such Jurisdictional Convention Delegates to which any chapter shall be entitled shall be determined by the records of the Secretary of WoodmenLife as of November 30 immediately preceding the election thereof. Alternate Jurisdictional Convention Delegates to Jurisdictional Conventions shall have the same rights and privileges as their principals, in the absence of the latter.

The charters of eligible Chapters failing to elect Jurisdictional Convention Delegates and alternates shall stand suspended. Failure to so elect Jurisdictional Convention Delegates and alternates to two consecutive Jurisdictional Conventions may result in a forfeiture of chapter charters, and the President of WoodmenLife may consolidate said chapter as provided in this Article 5.

Sec. 6. Consolidation and Merger.

(a) The President & CEO of WoodmenLife, in his/her discretion, may consolidate or merge two or more family, adult or youth chapters whenever he/she deems it to be in the best interest of WoodmenLife, or he/she may, under like circumstances, transfer all the members thereof to any other such subordinate body, provided satisfactory provision is made for the payment of all liabilities of all such bodies dissolved and consolidated or merged or whose members are transferred to another such body. The President & CEO of WoodmenLife shall also have authority, in his discretion, to transfer only part of the members of any such body to another appropriate subordinate body without regard to the liabilities of the body from which they are transferred.

(b) The records, paraphernalia, badges and all other property, real, personal, and mixed, belonging to any family, adult or youth chapter dissolved, consolidated or merged, shall become the property of the subordinate body with which it is consolidated or merged except any specific property the President & CEO requests to be forwarded to WoodmenLife. The officers of the chapter which has been dissolved, consolidated or merged shall execute all deeds, bills of sale and other documents that may be necessary or required to affect any such transfer of property.

Sec. 7. Suspension, Revocation and Reinstatement of Charters.

(a) Upon the suspension or revocation of the charter of any family, adult or youth chapter, the officers thereof shall deliver to the President & CEO of WoodmenLife, or his/her duly authorized representative, the charter thereof, seal, rituals, records, funds, and all property of whatever kind or nature, title to which shall immediately vest in WoodmenLife. All members of such family, adult or youth chapter shall be immediately transferred by the Secretary of WoodmenLife, or designee thereof, to some other appropriate family, adult or youth chapter when the charter thereof has been revoked.

(b) Upon the reinstatement of any suspended charter, all property not disposed of and the proceeds of all property disposed of, together with the charter and records taken at the time of such suspension, shall be restored.

(c) Funds belonging to family, adult and youth chapters whose charters have been suspended shall be held by WoodmenLife until their charters are restored. If said charters are not restored, but are finally revoked, the funds shall be paid to those family, adult or youth chapters to which the members are transferred in proportion to the number of such members being transferred.

ARTICLE 6

Benefit Certificates of Membership

Sec. 1. Benefit Certificate, Form and How Obtained.

(a) Benefit Certificate. A benefit certificate (which term includes a settlement option contract) creates contractual and membership relationships between WoodmenLife and others, as follows:

(1) membership in WoodmenLife vests in the person identified as a member in a benefit certificate or as the payee in a settlement option contract or a member of a group subscribing to a benefit certificate; and

(2) contractual rights and privileges as set out in the benefit certificate and which vest in the owner of the benefit certificate, if different from the member.

(b) Contracts and Waivers.

(1) The Contract. The contract between WoodmenLife and the owner consists of: the certificate, including any riders, endorsements and amendments; the application and any applications for modification of the certificate, which are based upon evidence of insurability; and the Articles of Incorporation and this Constitution and Laws, including all amendments to each, except that, where required by law, a contract on a variable basis shall be subject to the Articles of Incorporation and this Constitution and Laws in force on the date of its issue.

(2) Waiver. No officer, employee or member of WoodmenLife, the National Convention or any of its subordinate bodies, or any other person whatsoever, shall have the power, right or authority to waive any of the conditions upon which benefit certificates are issued, or to change or waive any of the provisions of this Constitution and Laws, nor shall any custom or course of dealing on the part of any person or entity whatsoever, with or without the knowledge of any officer of WoodmenLife, have the effect of so changing, modifying, waiving, or forgoing such laws or requirements. Each and every benefit certificate is issued only upon the conditions stated in, and subject to, this Constitution and Laws then in force or thereafter enacted. The knowledge or act of any employee or representative of WoodmenLife shall not constitute a waiver of the provisions hereof by WoodmenLife or an estoppel of WoodmenLife.

(c) Issued in Name of WoodmenLife. All such certificates shall be issued in the name of WoodmenLife and shall bear facsimile signatures of the President & CEO and Secretary of WoodmenLife.

(d) Assignment and Alienation of Benefit Certificate. Subject to the notice provisions provided herein, nothing contained in this Constitution and Laws shall be construed to limit the right to assignment or alienation by a member of his or her benefit certificate, which shall not, of itself, terminate such membership. However, no assignment or pledge of a benefit certificate shall be effective until WoodmenLife shall have received, at WoodmenLife's Home Office, written notice of such assignment or pledge. WoodmenLife shall be entitled to deal only with the owner of a benefit certificate (whether as the original owner or any subsequent assignee or pledgee of the benefit certificate pursuant to an assignment duly received at WoodmenLife's Home Office), as then reflected on its books and records, until WoodmenLife shall have received, at WoodmenLife's Home Office, written notice of the assignment or pledge of a benefit certificate or written notice of termination of the assignment or pledge, each as the case may be.

(e) Ownership/Control of Youth Certificates. For certificates which so provide, ownership of a certificate issued in the name of a youth member shall be under the sole control of the applicant until the member reaches age sixteen; under the joint control of the applicant and the member between the member's age sixteen and the age of majority; and under the sole control of the member after the member's reaching the age of majority. The applicant may, by a writing approved by WoodmenLife, transfer the applicant's rights to any person having an insurable interest in the life of the youth member or to any person as allowed by applicable law. In the event of the death of the applicant before the youth member reaches the age of majority, WoodmenLife shall recognize that person who has the duty to support the youth member, and who in fact does support the youth member, as the person who is entitled to exercise the rights of ownership and control which the applicant could have exercised.

As soon as shall be administratively practical after August 1, 2002, WoodmenLife shall provide certificates which allow the adult applicant, when applying for a certificate in the name of a youth member, an option to have ownership either in the applicant or in the youth member.

(1) Ownership/Control by a Youth Member. If the youth member is the owner of the certificate, the applicant shall retain control over the certificate until the youth member reaches the age of majority. The applicant controller can exercise all rights in the certificate, except for the right of assignment, on behalf of the youth member until the youth member reaches the age of majority. The applicant controller may, by a writing approved by WoodmenLife, transfer control to any person having an insurable interest in the life of the youth member or to any person as allowed by applicable law. In the event of the death of the applicant controller before the youth member reaches the age of majority, WoodmenLife shall recognize that person who has the duty to support the youth member, and/or who in fact does support the youth member, as the person who is entitled to exercise the rights which the applicant controller could have exercised.

(2) Ownership/Control by an Adult Applicant. If the applicant is the owner of the certificate issued in the name of a youth member, the applicant shall have the right to exercise all rights in the certificate.

Sec. 2. Applications for Membership.

(a) Every application for benefit membership in WoodmenLife shall be signed by the applicant or a designee approved by WoodmenLife. Only duly authorized members of WoodmenLife's Sales Force shall have authority to solicit such applications. Each application shall be dated as of the date it is signed by the applicant. Youth members shall be admitted to WoodmenLife only upon the application of some adult person, under such rules, regulations and requirements as shall be prescribed by the President & CEO or the National Board of Directors. "Person" shall be defined to include the trustee of a trust under which the youth member is a beneficiary, unless a trustee is not allowed under applicable law.

All provisions of this Constitution and Laws shall apply to youth certificates when the context does not indicate that they apply only to adult certificates.

(b) All applications for benefit membership must be for a benefit certificate underwritten by WoodmenLife.

(c) The Secretary of WoodmenLife, or designee thereof, shall assign each new member to the appropriate chapter or youth chapter nearest the member's home. A member shall have the right to make a written request to be assigned or transferred to another chapter under procedures established by WoodmenLife. Separate rules shall be established for the transfer of youth members.

(d) Benefit certificates in the form approved by the applicable regulatory entity and the President & CEO shall be issued only upon application for membership as provided in this section.

Sec. 3. Designation of Beneficiaries and Changes Thereof.

(a) Designation. The beneficiary or beneficiaries, and alternate or alternates, if any, shall be designated in every benefit certificate.

(b) Change of Beneficiary. Should any person having such right desire to change the beneficiary or beneficiaries named in a certificate, he may do so, during his lifetime, by submitting an electronic or written request to the Home Office of WoodmenLife giving the name or names of the new beneficiary or beneficiaries. Upon receipt of a properly completed WoodmenLife form used for this purpose and in accordance with WoodmenLife operating procedures, when such change of beneficiary or beneficiaries is approved, WoodmenLife shall formally record the change of beneficiary and send an acknowledgement. Such a change of beneficiary or beneficiaries shall not be legally effective until such time as it has been formally adopted by WoodmenLife.

WoodmenLife shall not be required to ascertain whether or not a certificate is in full force and effect before complying with any such request, and acknowledgment of any change shall not be construed as validating any such certificate.

Sec. 4. Certificate Payments.

All Members Required To Make Payments. All certificate payments due shall be made to the Home Office of WoodmenLife, on or before the first day of the monthly, quarterly, semiannual, or annual period it is intended to cover. If the reserves of WoodmenLife as to all or any class of certificates should become impaired, the National Board of Directors may require each certificate owner of WoodmenLife to make additional payments equal to the amount of the owner's equitable proportion of such deficiency as determined by the National Board, and if the said additional payment shall not be made, it shall stand as an indebtedness against the certificate and draw interest not to exceed five percent per year, compounded yearly, or alternatively the owner may consent to a reduction of the corresponding insurance benefit proportionate to the value of the additional contributions, provided there shall be no personal liability upon any member or upon any applicant for youth certificate for any such additional payments. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to contracts issued on a variable basis.

Sec. 5. Payment to Beneficiaries and Surviving Beneficiaries.

(a) In the event that two or more beneficiaries are designated as herein provided and one or more thereof predeceases the member, or perishes in the same disaster, or otherwise, so that it is not evident as to which died first, or if one or more of said beneficiaries are nonexistent or are unauthorized by the applicable law or under this Constitution and Laws to receive the benefits under any such certificate, and no new designation of beneficiary has been made by any person entitled to do so, that part of such benefits made payable to any such person shall be paid equally to the surviving beneficiary or beneficiaries.

(b) Should a beneficiary predecease the member, or die simultaneously with the member, so that it cannot be determined who died first, or if the member, having provided that the rights of the beneficiary shall be conditioned upon survivorship of the beneficiary for a specified period of time, and the beneficiary has failed to survive for the specified period of time, then the proceeds of the certificate shall be paid as though the beneficiary had predeceased the member.

Sec. 6. Payment of Benefits When All Primary and Alternate Beneficiaries Are Deceased.

(a) In the event a member, who is also the owner of a certificate, shall decease and be survived by no properly designated beneficiary to whom benefits can be paid, the benefits due shall be paid to the member-owner's surviving spouse. If there is no surviving spouse, then said benefits shall be paid in equal shares, to the surviving children and legally adopted children of the member-owner; if none, then said benefits shall be paid in equal shares to the surviving parents of the member-owner; if none, then said benefits shall be paid to the member-owner's estate.

(b) In the event a member is not the owner of the certificate and there is no provision for successor ownership at the owner's death, and the member dies without a designated or valid beneficiary, the benefits shall be paid to the surviving owner(s); if none, then said benefits shall be paid to the estate of the last surviving owner of the certificate.

(c) In the case of an annuity certificate owned by an individual other than the annuitant, if benefits become payable at the death of the owner and the owner dies without a designated or valid beneficiary, the benefits shall be paid to the estate of the owner of the certificate.

Sec. 7. Conflicts Between Certificate Provisions and Constitution and Laws.

All provisions in benefit certificates shall prevail in the construction of the contractual rights thereunder when there is a real or apparent conflict between said provisions and this Constitution and Laws.

Sec. 8. Applicable Conditions to Certificates Regarding Costs of Litigation.

The following shall apply to every benefit certificate: In the event WoodmenLife becomes or is made a party to any court proceeding to determine to whom any payment shall be made because of conflicting claims, or otherwise, to the proceeds of a benefit certificate, then all court costs and other necessary costs, including a reasonable fee to the attorney representing WoodmenLife, shall be paid out of the amount due under any such certificate.

Sec. 9. No Person to Have Any Rights Except as Herein Provided.

No member, or any other person claiming benefits or rights under any benefit certificate of membership issued by WoodmenLife, shall have any rights in, or claim to, any funds of WoodmenLife, except as provided in any such benefit certificate and/or this Constitution and Laws.

Sec. 10. Miscellaneous Values Payable at Death.

At the death of an insured member, the benefits to be paid to the person or persons designated by the member, or to any person identified pursuant to Section 6 of this Article 6, or to any collateral assignee, shall include the contractual benefits provided by the certificate, plus any funds held by WoodmenLife in an advance premium deposit fund, and any other funds which WoodmenLife shall determine to be payable in respect to or incidental to the certificate at the member's death.

Sec. 11. Total and Permanent Disability at Age Seventy.

(a) When any member of WoodmenLife in good standing who holds a combined benefit certificate shall have reached the age of seventy years, and shall have become presumably permanently totally physically disabled by reason of old age, and who has made provision for same by contributing at the rate therefor, as set forth in Section 12 of this Article 6, on application therefor and satisfactory proof thereof being furnished, on blanks provided therefor, to the Secretary of WoodmenLife at its Home Office, there shall be paid to said member from the beneficiary fund, less any indebtedness standing against the certificate, an amount equal to ten percent of that which would be due under the provisions of this certificate if he/she were deceased and at the end of each year thereafter, if he/she shall be presumably permanently totally physically disabled by reason of old age, upon making application therefor (on blanks provided for that purpose) during his/her lifetime a like amount shall be paid to him/her, less any indebtedness standing against his/her certificate, for nine consecutive years. In the event he/she dies before he/she shall have received the ten payments above provided, the amount remaining unpaid on his certificate, less any indebtedness standing against the certificate, shall be paid to his/her beneficiary, provided no sum shall be paid to said member unless he/she executes a release to WoodmenLife for the portion thereof so paid.

(a) Purpose. The purpose of this Section 1 is to identify the means by which members, chapters, Jurisdictions, or WoodmenLife may present and resolve grievances involving chapter or Jurisdiction matters or charges against other members, chapters, Jurisdictions or WoodmenLife consistent with the fraternal nature of WoodmenLife and the role of the fraternal lodge system, as defined by law, in fulfilling the purposes and objectives of WoodmenLife.

This Section 1 shall not apply, and Section 2 of this Article 7 shall apply, whenever the matter in dispute involves a member's, benefit certificate owner's, beneficiary's or payor's claim for damages, or claim for redress for a violation of his or her individual rights or for a denial of individual privileges or benefits which he/she claims as a member, benefit certificate owner, beneficiary, or payor or in cases where WoodmenLife invokes the procedure against a member, benefit certificate owner, beneficiary, or payor regarding individual rights, individual privileges or benefits. This section shall not apply to any dispute regarding a security owned by a public customer.

(c) Procedures.

(1) Chapter Grievances and Charges Against Members. Chapter grievances and charges against members initiated by other members under this Section 1 shall be filed in writing with the Chapter Secretary, with a copy to the President & CEO of WoodmenLife. The Chapter Secretary shall review the grievance and/or charge and render a determination within thirty days of receipt of the grievance and/or charge. The Chapter Secretary's determination of the grievance and/or charge may be appealed in writing to the President & CEO of WoodmenLife within thirty days of the Chapter Secretary's determination. The President & CEO's decision shall be final unless the member or chapter files a written appeal of the decision within thirty days to the Judiciary Committee as provided for in Article 8 of this Constitution and Laws. The decision of the President & CEO will be effective unless and until the decision is modified by the Judiciary Committee.

(2) Chapter and Jurisdiction Grievances or Charges Against WoodmenLife.

Chapter and Jurisdiction grievances and charges against WoodmenLife under this Section 1 shall be filed in writing with the President & CEO of WoodmenLife. The President & CEO shall review the grievance and/or charge and render a determination within thirty days of receipt of the grievance or charge. The President & CEO's decision will be final unless the chapter files a written appeal of the decision within thirty days to the Judiciary Committee as provided for in Article 8 of this Constitution and Laws. The decision of the President & CEO will be effective unless and until the decision is modified by the Judiciary Committee.

Sec. 2. Resolution of Individual Disputes.

(a) Purpose. The purpose of this Section 2 is to provide opportunities for members, benefit certificate owners, beneficiaries, payors, and WoodmenLife or any subordinate bodies or affiliates of WoodmenLife, including its former and current members of the National Board of Directors, officers, employees, Representatives, associates and agents of same, to be promptly heard and to seek fair resolution of any and all disputes arising from or related to the rights, privileges, benefits, entitlements or status that a member, benefit certificate owner, beneficiary, or payor may claim or enjoy from a benefit certificate or membership in WoodmenLife, including any disputes arising from or related to a member's involvement in the activities of any subordinate body or affiliate of WoodmenLife. Said process is consistent with the fraternal nature of WoodmenLife without the delay and expense of formal legal proceedings. This Section 2 is intended to apply to WoodmenLife or any subordinate body or affiliate of WoodmenLife, including its former and current members of the National Board of Directors, officers, employees, Representatives, associates and agents of same, to all current and future members, benefit certificate owners, beneficiaries, and payors and to all current and future benefit certificates.

(b) Scope. This Section 2 shall apply whenever a member, benefit certificate owner, beneficiary, or payor of WoodmenLife makes any claim for damages, or claims any form of redress for any alleged interference with, or violation of, any right, privilege, benefit, or interest as set forth in subsection (a) above which he or she claims or enjoys as a member, benefit certificate owner, beneficiary, or payor including, but not limited to, disputes involving alleged fraud, tortious conduct, negligence, misrepresentation, breach of contract, discrimination, denial of civil rights, conspiracy, defamation, or infliction of distress caused by WoodmenLife or any subordinate body or affiliate of WoodmenLife or any former or current member of the National Board of Directors, officers, employees, Representatives, associates, or agents of same and disputes regarding the denial of benefit claims under any certificate to the extent procedures of this Section 2 are not prohibited by applicable law. No lawsuit may be filed against WoodmenLife or any former or current member of the National Board of Directors, officers, employees, Representatives, associates or agents of WoodmenLife or any subordinate body or affiliate of WoodmenLife regarding any dispute covered by this Section 2 until the procedures described herein have been exhausted; a lawsuit may then be filed only if the applicable law does not recognize the procedures herein to be final and binding with respect to the matter in dispute. The scope of this paragraph is intended to include any and all claims of any nature that WoodmenLife or any subordinate body or affiliate of WoodmenLife might wish to invoke against a member, benefit certificate owner, beneficiary, or payor regarding individual rights, privileges, or benefits claimed by a member, benefit certificate owner, beneficiary, or payor. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to supersede the provisions of Article 6, Section 8 of this Constitution and Laws.

This Section 2 shall specifically apply (i) in the event WoodmenLife or any former or current member of the National Board of Directors, officers, employees, Representatives, associates, or agents of same or any subordinate body or affiliate of WoodmenLife becomes or is made a party to any court or other legal proceeding to determine to whom any benefit of a benefit certificate shall be made payable because of conflicting claims, or (ii) to the payment of any benefit of a benefit certificate whereby WoodmenLife acknowledges that money or a benefit is payable but because two or more parties have submitted conflicting claims for the money or benefit payment, WoodmenLife is unable to determine to whom such benefit shall be paid. This Section 2 shall apply even in circumstances where WoodmenLife has not been made a party to any such dispute, conflicting claim, court, or other legal proceeding.

This Section 2 shall not apply to any dispute regarding a security owned by a public customer. Such disputes are governed by Article 7, Section 3 of this Constitution and Laws.

(c) Initiating the Procedure. A member, benefit certificate owner, beneficiary, payor, or WoodmenLife seeking to initiate the dispute resolution procedure of this Section 2 shall contact the designated Dispute Resolution Official of WoodmenLife, who shall assist the member, benefit certificate owner, beneficiary, payor, or WoodmenLife in requesting and arranging for the following dispute resolution steps:

Step 1. Informal negotiation arranged by the Dispute Resolution Official, involving the member, benefit certificate owner, beneficiary or payor, and officials of WoodmenLife as appropriate to the dispute.

Step 2. If step 1 does not result in a mutually satisfactory resolution, mediation administered by and in accordance with the applicable mediation rules of the American Arbitration Association (or another neutral organization or party mutually agreed upon. If either party to the dispute elects not to participate in mediation, then the parties will proceed to step 3.

Step 3. If step 2 does not result in a mutually satisfactory resolution, arbitration administered by and in accordance with the applicable arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association (or another neutral organization or party mutually agreed upon. The arbitrator may award any and all damages, or other relief allowed for the claim in dispute by applicable federal or state law. Unless (and to the extent) prohibited by the applicable law with respect to the issue in dispute, the decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding, subject only to the right to appeal such decision by applicable state and/or federal law. In no event shall an appeal be taken in or through the American Arbitration Association or under any rules providing for such appeals by any other neutral or neutral third party organization. The member, benefit certificate owner, beneficiary, or payor shall have the right to consult with legal counsel of his or her choosing at any time and, throughout steps 2 and 3, shall have the right to be directly represented by legal counsel, shall have reasonable access to and discovery of relevant information, and shall have reasonable notice of the dates and times of the mediation and/or arbitration meetings. Any costs for representation by legal counsel shall be borne by the member, benefit certificate owner, beneficiary, or payor. Every reasonable effort shall be made to complete step 1 within thirty days of the date the notice of dispute is received from the member, benefit certificate owner, beneficiary, or payor; step 2 within an additional forty-five days; and step 3 within an additional ninety days. These timelines are intended as a guideline only, and failure to complete any step within the aforementioned time periods will not invalidate the process or the continuation of the process. It is in everyone's best interest to raise and resolve disputes promptly; WoodmenLife shall not be obligated to process a dispute brought after the applicable statute of limitations period has expired. All mediation and arbitration meetings/hearings shall be conducted at a location convenient to the parties in the member's, benefit certificate owner's, beneficiary's, or payor's state of residence, unless the parties mutually agree on another location.

(d) Rules and Procedures. WoodmenLife has established rules and procedures for handling all matters submitted under each step in the Dispute Resolution Procedure. Those rules and procedures are incorporated by this reference and may be modified from time to time by WoodmenLife.

(e) Restriction on Joinder of Disputes. The procedures of this Section 2 are designed to afford individual members, benefit certificate owners, beneficiaries, payors, and WoodmenLife or any former or current member of the National Board of Directors, officers, employees, Representatives, associates, or agents of same, or any subordinate body or affiliate of WoodmenLife, a prompt, fair and efficient means of resolving their individual disputes. Accordingly, no disputes may be brought forward in a representative capacity or on behalf of any “class” of persons, and the disputes of multiple members, benefit certificate owners, beneficiaries, or payors (other than immediate family, which shall be defined as the spouse of any member, benefit certificate owner, beneficiary, or payor filing a claim and any dependent children currently residing in the same home) may not be joined together for purposes of these procedures without the express written consent of (i) all members, benefit certificate owners, beneficiaries, and payors affected thereby, and (ii) the President & CEO of WoodmenLife.

(f) Costs. The costs incurred by the member/benefit certificate owner/beneficiary/payor and WoodmenLife in proceedings under this Section 2 are limited to the fees of mediators or arbitrators and filing fees, which shall be paid out of a Dispute Resolution Fund established by WoodmenLife. Each party shall pay its own attorneys’ fees and all associated costs. Because all decisions made by any arbitrator are final and binding on all parties, WoodmenLife shall not be obligated to pay any costs associated with or incurred by any member/benefit certificate owner/beneficiary or payor who attempts to appeal any final decision of any arbitrator, whether such attempt is made through appeal to the state or federal courts or through any neutral or neutral third party organization. Any and all such costs shall be borne solely by the member/beneficiary/certificate owner or payor who attempts such appeal.

(g) Effect of Applicable Law. In cases where a claim or dispute is subject to law which prohibits agreements to submit future disputes to binding arbitration and where such law is applicable and not preempted by any contrary law, then unless both the individual (member, benefit certificate owner, beneficiary, or payor) and WoodmenLife have voluntarily agreed to binding arbitration after the claim or dispute has arisen, step 3 of the procedure set forth above shall be nonbinding, and the member, benefit certificate owner, beneficiary or payor will be so advised. In all other cases, step 3 of the procedure set forth above shall be binding.

Sec. 3. Resolution of Disputes of Security Holders. Any dispute regarding a security owned by a public and/or institutional customer shall be governed by the terms and conditions of Woodmen Financial Services, Inc.’s Customer Agreement and Pre-Dispute Arbitration Agreement.
